WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Daniel Jeyoub, a recent retiree from academic advising (January 31, 2008), is the 2008-09 McNeese Outriders President. He currently serves on the board of the Arts and Humanities Council as well as on the Pastoral Council at Immaculate Conception Cathedral where he is a member of the choir and office volunteer. Daniel continues his long-standing involvement in community theatre as an outstanding singer and actor.

Daniel has recently joined the Liberty Belles, a song and dance group that presents musical programs for area nursing homes. Since Daniel is the only man in an all women revue, the group is now known as the "Liberty Belles and Ding Dong." Daniel also acts as a 'roadie,' serving as back-up singer for nephew John Jeyoub, a well-known Elvis impersonator.

Daniel and his wife, Ursula, are the proud grandparents of nineteen grandchildren which results in numerous requests for babysitting. Of course, they always try to accommodate those requests as all doting grandparents do!

Roadie - slang for a member of a crew for a traveling group of musicians or other entertainers, whose work usually includes the setting up of equipment.

RAPHIEL HEARD

The McNeese Foundation issued its first magazine, PILLARS, to educate and inform the community of the role that the Foundation plays in support of McNeese State University. The name, PILLARS, was chosen to represent the importance of the Foundation's support of McNeese as an institution of higher learning.

Raphael Heard was featured as the student scholarship recipient in the first edition (see cover on right). Just a few moments of talking with Raphael is enough to convince you that Foundation scholarship funds are well-invested in our youth. He came to McNeese from Cameron Parish to study pre-med and was awarded the Dr. Chick White Pre-Med Scholarship and the Dr. John Stevens Memorial Scholarship. In spite of the upheavals caused to Raphael and his family by Hurricane Rita, he graduated from McNeese in May 2008 and is currently pursuing his medical degree at LSU Health Sciences Center in Shreveport.

PILLARS

A NOTE FROM YOUR OUTRIDERS LIAISONS,

We would like to thank you for your part in making McNeese State University such an integral part of Southwest Louisiana and for your continued support through the Outriders. Being the liaisons to the Outriders is one of the bright spots in our day. We enjoy working both for you and with you.

We wanted to share a bit of "happy news" from our office. Jennifer Griffith, planned giving and donor research specialist, was recently awarded a scholarship by CASE (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) to attend the "Entry to Advancement" workshop in Oklahoma City, OK April 4-8. This will be Jennifer's FIRST-TIME to fly! Please keep her in your thoughts and prayers for safe travel and great learning. Marianne White, coordinator of planned giving and donor research, was awarded CASE's Virginia Carter Smith scholarship to a planned giving conference in Salt Lake City, UT June 8-11.

Marianne and Jennifer recently traveled to Tulane University in New Orleans and Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge to receive mentoring on prospect research best practices. We are continually striving to enhance our skills in support of the McNeese State University Foundation. Let us know how we may better serve you, our constituents.

FEBRUARY 14, 2009

Young love is a flame; very pretty,
often very hot and fierce, but still only light and flickering. The love of the older and disciplined heart is as coals, deep-burning, unquenchable.

Henry Ward Beecher
